APPENDIX D/1 – CONTENT REPORT FORM

WFM Catherine Kaslan is a 3-time National Women’s chess champion of Suriname. She was trained by Cuban trainers(Sponsored by Ministry of Sport Affairs) and the last training is from IM Maximiliano Perez from Argentina, the costs were CCA's(FIDE).

We at the Chess Federation also send our chess champions to play tournaments abroad, if financially possible, to gain more experience and test their strengths and this would also happen for our National men's chess champion, if there was an available tournament during that period. In this way we try to invest in our chess players.

After such a tournament, the results are evaluated and, where necessary, the chess players receive additional training.

The biggest problem in Suriname is continuity, due to a lack of financial resources, either the training or the delegations or also both cannot be realized.

With this kind of support of FIDE we hopefully can improved the level of chess in Suriname.
