PROJECT DESCRIPTION:	The 2024 Francophone Individual Chess Championships took place at Château Frontenac in Quebec as part of the celebrations for FIDE's centenary. Titles were awarded for Francophone Champion, Women's Francophone Champion, Senior Champion, Veteran Champion, as well as Rapid and Blitz Champions. Over three days, the event featured various activities, including the Chess Torch Relay, public simultaneous exhibitions, a living chess game, and a gala dinner attended by FIDE dignitaries. These celebrations brought together the Francophone chess community, fostering exchanges and solidarity among its members while promoting the game to the general public.

APPENDIX D/1 – CONTENT REPORT FORM

It should be noted that, if we did not achieve our goals in terms of participation and the number of countries represented, this is largely due to the fact that no visas were granted to the participants. As a result, more than 30 registered players were unable to travel to Canada, mainly from Africa, representing about fifteen nationalities that were absent.
